SUPPLEMENT, &c.

PETERSBURG, APRIL 4, 1797.

NEW-YORK, March 22.

The Briſeus, captain Breath, arrived here yeſterday, 66 days from Bourdeaux. This veſſel brings an ample confirmation of the non-reception or our ambaſſador.

The moſt important intelligence, however, is that of Mr. Pinckney's ill treatment from the directory, who do not pay him that reſpect which is due even to an indifferent foreigner. That a very ſtrong revolutionary ſpirit ſeems ſtill to exiſt in France. That the directory, in order to awe the people from internal commotion, have drawn men from the armies of the republic to preſerve tranquility. That the Breſt fleet had returned into port; and that Buonaparte had been unſucceisful in Italy.

There are the verbal accounts.

The letters from which the following extracts are taken, were received yeſterday by the Briſeus from Bourdeaux, and are from unqueſtionable authority.

Extract of a letter from Paris, dated January 7, 1797.

"Without aſſigning any reaſon, but that they have certain grievances to complain of, the directory have refuſed to receive general Pinckney, and have done every thing but give him an official order to quit the territories of the republic. This, however, he waits to receive in ſome more unequivocal manner, than they have as yet been pleaſed to ſignify the ſame. The miniſter for foreign affairs, Delatroix, refuſes to have any communication in writing with him, under pretence that it would be an act of acknowledgment of general Pinckney as miniſter, and has not anſwered but verbally, a letter which the latter wrote to him ſome time ſince, deſiring to know what was the will of the directory as to his ſtaying, as he had not received the card of reſidence which had been promiſed him, without which he was liable to be arreſted by every corpe de garde. The miniſter however, ſent a verbal meſſage to him by his ſecretary, that he muſt conſider himſelf in the light of any common foreigner, to whom a card had been refuſed, and muſt, agreeably to the laws of the country, quit it without delay.

This general Pinckney refuſed to do, as they had already poſſeſſed themſelves of the knowledge that he was no common ſtranger, not arrived in their territories in a private capacity, but as a public character, and as ſuch not ſubject to the ſocial regulations of France—but protected and guarded by the laws of nations, which he claimed in his favor as long as he remained—if, however, it was their will that he ſhould depart, that he would obey them without reluctance, but requeſted ſomething more official than verbal communications. Several interviews have been had with Mr. Delacroix; in the laſt one ſome few days ago, a long converſation took place—he expreſſed great ſurprize at general Pinckney's being ſtill here, and it became neceſſary to tell him that here he muſt remain, unleſs he would give him ſome order, under his own hand, to juſtify himſelf to his government for quitting a ſpot to which it had ſent him. This he refuſed with ſome warmth. It was given more than as a hint, that the miniſter of the police ſhould do his duty. However he is ſtill unmoleſted, though not without apprehenſion.

I hope that every American will ſee how neceſſary it is to convince not only this government, but every foreign power, how great is their miſtake if they calculate upon any influence which they may poſſeſs in our country, to the prejudice of either our intereſt or our honor."

Extract of a letter from Paris, Dec. 26.

"You will doubtleſs before this hear of Pinckney's reception being ſuſpended. He waits here, until he gets further inſtructions from our government. The recall of Adet went from here laſt Auguſt. This, it is expected, will produce an explanation of ſome things this government complains of, and that matters will yet be reconciled.

"Lord Malmeſbury will certainly leave this without making any negociations, and the war will be continued another year.

"Every thing is quiet here, and plenty of proviſions, and no appearance of want except in the government. The Preſident's ſpeech has been ſome little time ſince received and publiſhed here, and is conſidered as it ought to be by every friend of America, a ſincere declaration of his ſentiments heretofore, and a certain evidence of his ability, and the uprighineſs of his conduct.

Mr. Pinckney's Negociation.

On this important ſubject diſpatches from Mr. Pinckney to our executive are received and were expedited to Philadelphia yeſterday afternoon by expreſs; from whence the public will doubtleſs ſoon be relieved from their tedious ſuſpence. The neareſt that we can come to the truth, from verbal accounts torn from amid a cloud of prejudice, is—That Mr. Delacroix informed Mr. Pinckney, that he could not now be received, but that he could tarry, under the principles on which other foreigners tarried, until further information was received from America on the ſubject of their complaints of the American executive. That Mr. Pinckney replied, that he would not tarry upon theſe principles, but that he would throw himſelf upon the uſages of nations in theſe caſes—and then, if he was ordered to leave the country he would do it.

We underſtand, that he is to tarry until he receives returns to his diſpatches. [Argus.]

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Paris, to his friend in this city, by the Briſeus, dated January 7, 1797.

"Mr. Munroe has taken leave of the executive directory. Mr. Pinckney has not been received by them as miniſter plenipotentiary from the United States. The laſt letters from the army in Italy are 28 December. Buonaparte writes, "Mantua is beſieged with the greateſt aſſiduity, the garriſon is in the laſt extremity having nothing to eat but horſe flesh."

EXECUTIVE DIRECTORY.

PUBLIC SITTINGS,

Citizen Munroe, miniſter Plenipotentiary of the United States of America, communicated his letter of recal which he had recently received. He expreſſed his attachment to France, to the revolution, and his wiſhes for our glory. He added that the Preſident of the United States had charged him expreſsly to repeat his aſſurance of the intereſt which the United States take in your Republic, and of the wiſhes which they form for your welfare.

The anſwer of the Preſident (Barras) is remarkable:

"On this day preſenting your letters of recal," ſaid Barras to Mr Munroe, "you give to Europe a very ſtrange ſpectacle.

"France, rich in her liberty, encompaſſed by her train of victories, ſtrong in the eſteem of her allies, will not abuſe herſelf by calculating the conſequences of the condeſcention of the American government to the ſuggeſtions of its ancient maſters.

"The French Republic hopes, that at leaſt the ſucceſſors of Columbus and of Penn, always jealous of their liberty, will never forget what they owe to France. They will weigh in their wiſdom, the magnanimous good will of the French people, with the careſſes of certain perfidious perſons, who meditate to bring them back to their former ſlavery. Aſſure, Sir, the good American people, that like them, we adore liberty; that they ſhall always have our eſteem; and that they will find in the French people, that republican generoſity which knows how to grant peace as it knows how to make its ſovereignty reſpected.

"As for you, Mr. Miniſter Plenipotentiary you have contended for principles, you have known the true intereſts of your country; depart with our regret. We give up in you a repreſentative to America, and we keep the remembrance of a citizen, while perſonal qualities do honour to that title."

ECLIPSE,

WILL ſtand the enſuing ſeaſon at the ſubſcriber's plantation in Prince George county, and will be let to Mares at Forty Shillings the ſeaſon. Paſturage gratis, but the ſubſcriber will not be anſwerable for accidents or eſcapes.

ECLIPSE is a very fine Cheſnut Sorrel, five feet three inches high, well marked, and of elegant figure He was got by Obſcurity; his dam by Apollo, his grandam by Old Valiant, and his great grandam by Tryall.

March 2, 1797. WILLIAM COLE.

THE NOTED HORSE

LEVIATHAN,

A FINE BAY, full ſixteen and one quarter hands high, well formed, and 7 years old this ſpring, ſtands the enſuing ſeaſon at my ſtable at Nottoway Courthouſe, and will be let to Mares at EIGHT DOLLARS the ſeaſon, payable on the 25th Dec. next enſuing, FOUR DOLLARS the leap to be paid down, with 1/6 to the Groom, for each mare put to the horſe.

LEVIATHAN,

Was got by Fitz Partner, his dam by Old Celer, his grandam by Bully Rock, his great grandam by Britain, his great great grandam by the Iriſh horſe; theſe three laſt horſes were imported at different times into the State of Pennſylvania, and were eſteemed the firſt horſes, in the ſtate (not only for their extraordinary ſize) but alſo for their performances on the Turf: The ſeaſon has commenced, and will expire on the 15th day of Auguſt next.—The greateſt care ſhall be taken of the mares to prevent accidents but will not be liable for any that may happen.

☞ This Horſe for ſeveral ſeaſons has eſtabliſhed general proofs of his ſure foal getting.

STERLING LEWIS.

Nottoway county, March 13, 1797. (2m.)

THE NOTED IMPORTED HORSE

DARE-DEVIL,

Full ſixteen hands high beautifully FORMED and MARKED,

STANDS the enſuing SEASON, at my ſtable in Dinwiddie county, and will be let to Mares, at SIX GUINEAS the Seaſon, which may be diſcharged by the payment of FIVE GUINEAS on or before the 1ſt day of October next, Two Guineas and a half the leap to be paid down, and Ten Guineas to enſure a mares being with foal, with a dollar to the groom, for a mare put to the horſe. Thoſe perſons who put by inſurance and part with their mares before the time of foaling, to be anſwerable for the ſame.

As DARE-DEVIL,

is admitted by all unprejudiced perſons to be at leaſt equal to any Horſe now on the continent, or ever was, a lengthy detail of his PEDIGREE, I preſume is unneceſſary; ſuffice it therefore to ſay he was got by Magnet, his dam Hebe by Chriſolite, out of Proſſepine, a full ſiſter to O'Kelly's Eclipſe, for which conſult the Callenders, as alſo thoſe of, 90, 91, 92, and 93, for his performances in thoſe years, having run eighteen public races, and proved ſucceſsfull in thirteen of them, beſides a number of hard runs, as a trial horſe.—In order that gentlemen of the Turf may have an opportunity of having early colts, the Seaſon will commence on the 15th day of February, and end as uſual. Extenſive paſturage, gratis, but will not be liable for accidents of any kind.

WILLIAM STARK, Jun.

February 6, 1797. (ep tf.)

THE NOTED HORSE
OLD WILDAIR,

WILL Stand the enſuing Seaſon, at my Stable on James River, in Surry county, and will be let to Mares at FOUR GUINEAS the Seaſon, on note of hand, (to be ſent with the Mare) payable on demand, but which may be diſcharged at any time before the 1ſt day of Nov. next, by payment of THREE GUINEAS.

The blood of OLD WILDAIR is ſo generally known, that it is deemed unneceſſary to mention it here. It will be ſufficient to obſerve, that he is from the beſt ſtock, both on the ſide of the ſire and dam, that was ever on the Continent: And I am fully perſuaded myſelf, that his Colts have performed on the turf with as much, if not more ſucceſs, than thoſe of any other Horſe in this country.

As I flatter myſelf that the order of the old Horſe will be very far ſuperior to what it has been for ſeveral years paſt, the probability of the mares proving with foal will conſequently be the greater, and if poſſible, his Colts will be better than they have been latterly.—Good and extenſive paſturage (in which there are twenty acres of meadow ground) will be found for the Mares, gratis, and the ſtricteſt attention ſhall be paid to avoid accidents or eſcapes, but I will not be reſponſible for either.

Thoſe perſons who ſhall wiſh to have their Mares fed with corn and fodder, during their continuance with the Horſe, ſhall be ſupplied with thoſe articles on as moderate terms as I can poſſibly afford.

James A. Bradby.

N. B. The Groom will expect to receive 1/6 for each Mare put to the Horſe. J. A. B.

Cedar-Fields, March 10, 1797. tf.

The noted thorough bred Horſe
PRESIDENT,

WILL ſtand the enſuing ſeaſon at my ſtore at Poplar Mount, Brunſwick county, Virginia, 8 miles from Gen. Eaton's and Moſby's ferries, and 10 miles from St. Tammany, will be let to mares at Ten Dollars the ſeaſon, five dollars the ſingle leap, and one and ſixpence to the groom; mares may be enſured for twenty dollars—the ſeaſon will commence the firſt of March, and end the 10th of Auguſt.

PRESIDENT is a beautiful dapple grey, riſing nine years old, upwards of fifteen and a half hands high, and for elegance and proportion, inferior to no horſe on the continent. Good and extenſive paſturage well encloſed gratis, and particular attention will be paid the mares, but will not be anſwerable for accidents or eſcapes; gentlemen may have their mares fed on the moſt moderate terms, and the boys ſent with them entertained gratis.

PRESIDENT was got by the imported horſe Clockfaſt, out of Old Poll; this mare was got by Old Fearnaught, her dam by Old Partner, her grandam by Old Jolly Roger, out of the noted imported mare Mary Gray; Poll's dam brought the noted running mare Betſy Baker, Poll alſo brought Young Flimnap, ſo noted for his performances any diſtance. President is remarkable for getting large elegant well formed colts, and his performances on the turf has always been ſucceſsful having taken a purſe at Newbern, and diſtancing ſeveral fine horſes; alſo at Hicks's Ford, after covering a full ſeaſon, and it is the opinion of all the beſt judges who ſee him perform, that he is equal to any horſe on the continent, for either ſpeed or bottom.

CORNET,
A BEAUTIFUL BAY,

Six years old this ſpring, five feet two inches high, of elegant and powerful form, in full vigour,

STANDS at my houſe in the county of Dinwiddie, on the Namozine Road, and will be let to Mares this ſpring at Five Dollars the leap, Three Guineas the ſeaſon, and Twenty Dollars the enſurance; but the ſeaſon may be diſcharged by the payment of Ten Dollars at any time before it expires, which will be on the 10th of Auguſt next; and gentlemen who may put Mares by the enſurance, muſt conſider themſelves bound to pay the money if the Mares ſo put are parted with before next ſpring. Paſturage gratis, but I will not be anſwerable for accidents or eſcapes.

DANIEL PEGRAM.

March 30, 1797.

CORNET,

Was got by Old Apollo, who was got by Col. Baylor's Old Fearnought, out of an imported Mare—his dam Selima, who was got by Col. Laurence Taliaferro's horſe Rockingham, who was got by Old Partner, out of Gen. Nelſon's imported Mare Bloſſom; who was got by the King of England's Plate horſe Slow, out of Lord Rockingham's Mare, that won the 100 Guinea Plate at Black Hamilton in Yorkſhire, and was then turned out a brood Mare—Old Partner was got by Morton's imported horſe Traveller, out of Col. Taſker's imported Mare Selima, who was got by the Godolphin Arabian; Selima's dam was got by Eclipſe, her grandam by Old Janus out of a full bred Whittenton Mare.
